

June 9, 2003

Dear Kimberly:

I feel a little embarrassed to be sending you even more material tooting my own horn, but going through some old memories, I thought you might be interested. I don't know how you might make use of this stuff, but here it is.

Warmest,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "George". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, prominent initial "G".